3) The representation is for an annual publication of the rules of practice and its sale to the Public. The Digest now under preparation will no doubt be up to date ~~as~~ when it comes out but before ~~an~~ another edition can be thought of, a number of new rules will have come into existence in addition to the alterations in the existing rules. New rules and corrections to the existing ones are now being printed and an annual compilation of these in the form of a supplement will keep the Digest always up to date.

4) The reply of the Chief Court does not touch upon the issue of annual supplements. ~~and their sale~~ The Digests are now being sold to the public
